

WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS & BOARD OF DIRECTORS

On Friday, October 1, 2010, the Walnut Valley Kiwanis Club had a Breakfast Meeting, as they do every Friday morning at 7 a.m. at the Millie's Restaurant in Walnut. This meeting was very special in that they were installing their new Officers and Board of Directors, and promoting their past year's Officers and Board of Directors. This was the 47th Installation of Officers to be celebrated. Kiwanis has an Administrative Year from Oct.1 to Sept. 30. Members were joined by spouses, and numerous dignitaries from Walnut and Diamond Bar were in attendance. Also attending was Tricia Fu, the President of the Walnut HS Key Club.

The dignitaries included Walnut Mayor Tony Cartagena, as well as the Mayor Pro Tem, Nancy Tragarz. From Diamond Bar, Mayor Pro Tem Steve Tye was joined by City Councilmen Ron Everett and Jack Tanaka. Jack was joined by his wife, Wanda. The Kiwanis dignitaries included Division 35 Lieutenant Governor Debbie Deal and Immediate Past Lieutenant Governor Tony Miller. Tony is a member of the Glendora Kiwanis Club, Debbie is from the Glendora Kiwanianes Kiwanis Club. She was joined by club member Debbie Schmidt. Other past Lieutenant Governors attending were: Paul White & Cindy White of the La Puente Industry Kiwanis Club, and Dave Wallach of the Hacienda Heights Kiwanis Club. Dave is current President of his club. Joining Dave were members Dave Malkin & Jim Stewart. Joining the Whites was club member Verne Moyer.
