WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

At the invitation of President Don Ferderer, Manuel Baca led us in our Pledge of Allegiance. Music Conductor Larry McMillan started strong with My Country 'Tis of Thee, but as usual, we finished with a less than stellar performance. Ted Miller offered this morning's invocation.

Manuel introduced Doug Todd, Mt. SAC Head Track Coach, our only guest and speaker today.

Program Chairperson Ted Miller is requesting assistance with securing speakers for our weekly meetings. This is a huge task and Ted is running low on contacts. Please help out and offer names, topics, agencies, etc.

President Don announced that we have been requested to provide our world-famous Pancake Breakfast on Saturday, May 8, for Children's Literature Day at Mt. SAC. The Circle K Club have already offered their assistance if we decide to do this. Aggie Kee asked whether we are expected to donate or charge for the breakfast. Richard Malooly questioned who receives the proceeds if we charge. Don will check on these items and we will continue discussion at our Board Meeting on Wednesday, March 3, at 6:30 p.m. in the Remax office.

Manuel Baca purchased 13 tickets for the people who signed up last week for Puttin' On The Hits to be held on Saturday, March 13, at Mt. SAC. Tickets were $20.00 each and members will be billed through Kate. Rich Malooly has had to cancel his plans for this event so we have two tickets available for resale. Aggie is holding all tickets right now and they will be distributed at our meeting on Friday, March 5. We will make dinner reservations at the Golden Fortune for 5:30 p.m.

Mt. SAC Youth Days will be held on volunteers to work the souvenir booth, hands are required. April 10 is Kiwanis joining us at Mt. SAC to fulfill their – check your calendars and we will start March 5. See the attached for a sign up Friday and Saturday, April 2 and 3. We need the field as needed, and anywhere else that extra One Day and other local Kiwanis clubs may be participation for One Day. This is Easter weekend circulating the sign-up sheets at our meeting on sheet.

The Diamond Bar City Birthday is Saturday, April 17, and we will be Carne and Pollo Asada. ALL HANDS are needed on this one so please your calendar. This is EXPOSURE to the community – please be serving put it on there!

No one had received a flyer for the Golf Tournament during the past week. It is scheduled for Monday, May 17, at Via Verde Country Club.

WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Doug Todd has been teaching at Mt. SAC since 1991. Doug held a Question & Answer period, testing us on our knowledge of the history of the Relays at the school – how many years, how many world records, etc. He handed out cowbells, shirts, and other Relay paraphernalia to those with the correct answers – which had kindly been distributed on slips of paper to all members present. Starting with Youth Days, the activities run three consecutive weekends accommodating students third grade through university. This is a self-funded event with a $300K budget. Sports celebrity appearance fees are not paid. Organizers have access to international media and live web broadcasts on both Friday and Saturday. It is well known that this event treats the athletes very well, exemplifying the statement, “The world comes to Walnut every April.” The City of Walnut was once very involved in this event and the organizers are striving to again strengthen this relationship. The Mt. SAC Foundation is compiling photos to publish “A Day in the Life of Mt. SAC”. Please share any memories that you may have. And speaking of a Pancake Breakfast, they are looking for a group to cook on Saturday morning, April 17. Doug can be contacted at dtodd@mtsac.edu.

For the second consecutive week, a winning opportunity was selected for President Don, but the Joker remained on vacation. Hail, Kiwanis!
